Company Background

Unimex Corporation is a small, disadvantaged business providing product sourcing, manufacturing, distribution and supply chain services to both commercial and government customers. We believe in sourcing and supplying quality products at cost effective prices while providing superior, old-fashioned customer service.

In 2010 Unimex began its journey by designing, manufacturing and selling tactical footwear to the public safety community. Due to the demand and our growth, over the years we have expanded to also offer uniforms, PPE, tactical equipment and aftermarket spare parts for the defense industry. We are honored to have successfully served DoD, DLA and other agencies through various contracts.
